FRANCISCO SERRANO OBRA COMPLETA/ COMPLETED WORKS

Texts in Spanish and English
BY KENNETH FRAMPTON & MIQUEL ADRIÀ

From the elegant embossed cover through hundreds of stunning color photographs, this volume is a fitting tribute to the contemporary Mexican architect J. Francisco Serrano, whose career began in 1959 and, 40 years later, shows no sign of slowing down. Often compared to the Mexican master Ricardo Legorreta—though less well-known than Legorreta outside Latin America—Serrano continues to define the look of Mexico's cities with over 100 major completed buildings, urban planning projects, and projects on the drawing board.
